R. WAYBURN, FATHER OF 8 DIES SUDDENLY

Richard Wayburn, 56, Aspers R. 1, died suddenly Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when stricken while working for the C. H. Musselman Co.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said Mr. Wayburn suffered a coronary thrombosis while he and another employee of the concern were traveling in a truck loaded with cherry seeds scheduled to be spread on an area of the Musselman company holdings.

Wayburn appeared to be in his normal health, but suddenly slumped forward. The driver of the truck stopped the vehicle and placed Mr. Wayburn on the lawn at the Merritt Rouzer farm and then had a physician summoned, but death had occurred.

WAS NAVY VETERAN

An employee of the C. H. Musselman Company since 1947, he was a native of Dayton O. He and his family moved to Adams County in October, 1947.

A retired veteran of U.S. Navy service, he served 20 years in the Navy and, as an aviation chief ordnance man, trained numerous Naval air force members in gunnery and bombing.

He was a son of the late George and Mary (Gerard) Wayburn.

He was a member of St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church here.

SERVICES TUESDAY

Surviving is his wife, the former Rita Connolly, whom he wed in 1941. Mrs. Wayburn several years ago organized a project to send books to India in which a large number of counties took part.

Also surviving are eight children: Miss Janet Wayburn, at home; Richard Wayburn Jr. and Robert Wayburn, students at the Redemptorist Fathers School at St. Mary's College, who are home for the summer; Mary Rita, Jo Ann, Thomas, Elizabeth and Gerald, all at home.

Funeral services Tuesday morning with meeting at the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., at 8:15 o'clock to go to St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church for a requiem mass at 9 o'clock at which Rev. Fr. Joseph Kealy will officiate. Interment in the Gettysburg National Cemetery. Friends may call Monday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home with the Rosary to be recited there at 8 o'clock that evening.

KATHERMAN HEARING IS POSTPONED

A hearing on a charge brought by Daniel R. Barnes, partner of Barnes Brothers, Littlestown, against Attorney Walter H. Katherman Jr., 201 S. Queen St., Littlestown, scheduled to be heard Friday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder, was continued to July 26 at 2 p.m. before the justice.

The postponement was the second for the hearing. When the charge was originally to be heard, District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter asked a continuance and it was granted. Friday afternoon Attorney Katherman's counsel, Attorneys Judson E. Ruch and Arthur Markowitz, York, asked continuance. It was granted, and the Littlestown attorney's $1,000 bail renewed.

Barnes charges Katherman collected $7,006.34 from Roy J. Fisher, Littlestown R. 2, for Barnes Brothers. Barnes alleges that the attorney turned over $6,000 to Barnes Brothers and kept $1,006.34 for his own use.

In the preliminaries preceding the postponement of the hearing Friday, Katherman's counsel said they believe the matter should be one for civil action rather than a criminal charge and objected when Attorney Teeter suggested he be permitted to question Littlestown bank officials despite the fact that no hearing was to be held that afternoon.

Attorney Ruch had been ill and in a hospital for some time and Attorney Markowitz traveling and they said they had been unable to prepare the case adequately.

C. C. Committees Meet Next Week

Meetings of two Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce committees have been announced for next week. Both will be luncheon sessions.

The membership committee will meet at noon on Tuesday at the Dutch Cupboard.

The roads and highways committee will gather at noon on Wednesday at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

"REC" PROGRAM TO ADD SPECIAL CLASSES IN ART

Program changes and additions, one in music and the other in arts and crafts, beginning next week, have been announced for the town's recreation program.

Mrs. Doris Eckhart and Thomas Brown, art supervisors for the summer program, said that starting on Thursday and Friday afternoons a special program in sketching and drawing will be held at Recreation Park for all children aged 12 to 16.

The sketching and drawing classes will meet generally at Recreation Park, but the plans call for the classes to go to various areas of the battlefield and other places of interest for much of the sketching.

REGULAR CRAFTS CONTINUE

If sufficient students appear for the program next Thursday and Friday afternoons, the program will be continued each Thursday and Friday afternoon of the remaining recreation program.

In addition to the sketching and drawing classes, the regular arts and crafts program will be continued at the various playgrounds. This coming week the children in all areas will be working on desk accessories including paper weights and letter openers. Last week 575 children on the various playgrounds participated in the arts and crafts program.

The changes in the music schedule as announced by instructor Robert Zeigler call for the elementary flute students who had been meeting on Wednesday mornings at 10:30 o'clock to meet instead of Monday mornings at 9:45 o'clock. The saxophone players who had been meeting on Thursday mornings at 11:15 o'clock will meet instead of Monday mornings at 9 o'clock.

Intermediate and advanced drum students will continue to report at 10:30 o'clock on Monday mornings.

Douglas Kefford Gets State Post

F. Douglas Kefford, York, has been appointed to the State Police Crime Laboratory, Commissioner Frank G. McCartney announced Friday.

Kefford, appointed at an annual salary of $5,529, is the second civilian chemist named to the staff, which also include three state policemen, according to the Associated Press.

He is a 1961 graduate of Franklin and Marshall College and taught chemistry and science at Central Dauphin High School, Harrisburg, last year. He is married to the former Donna Fissel of Gettysburg. They have one son.

ACCEPTS PASTORATE

Rev. Jack E. Hoffman, who graduated from the Lutheran Seminary in 1961, has accepted a call to become pastor of Mt. Zion Lutheran Church, Ebers R. D., York County. He will be ordained at the church on July 22.

Macmillan Is Badgered For New Elections As He Fires 7 In Cabinet

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Macmillan's wholesale shake-up of his Cabinet brought new pressure from opposition leaders today for an immediate national election.

Labor party leader Hugh Gaitskell called Macmillan's firing of seven of the 21 Conservative ministers Friday night "A political massacre which can only be interpreted as a gigantic admission of failure."

"Instead of getting rid of his colleagues, the prime minister should resign and let the people elect a new government," Gaitskell added.

GRIMOND AGREES

Liberal party leader Jo Grimond also called for a general election and declared: "After 12 years in office, it is too late for the Tories to try and put a new face on their administration."

Macmillan's Conservatives have a mandate to serve until the fall of 1964. The prime minister can

R. P. DEATRICK, STOREKEEPER, VETERAN, DIES

Robert P. Deatrack, 71, Gettysburg R. 4, former Hunterstown storekeeper and World War I veteran, died Friday afternoon at 3:10 o'clock at the Warner Hospital where he had been admitted as a patient Tuesday. He had been in failing health for a year. He had resided in recent years at the home of an aunt, Miss Nina Wolford, Gettysburg R. 4.

A native of Adams County, he was a son of the late William and Ella M. (Wolford) Deatrack, and had operated Deatrack's Store in Hunterstown for 25 years.

He enlisted in the army September 19, 1917, at Camp Meade, Md., and served with Company A, 316th Infantry, 79th Division, being appointed corporal October 24, 1917, and sergeant January 9, 1918.

He and his unit sailed from the United States to Brest, France, in June, 1918, and he served during the fighting in the Meuse-Argonne and the Troyon sectors in France. He returned to the U. S. in February, 1919, and was discharged from the Army March 10, 1919.

He was a member of the Great Conewago Presbyterian Church, the New Oxford Social and Athletic Club and the Adams County Democratic Association.

His wife, the former Margaret E. Taughinbaugh, died in 1945.

Surviving are five children: Richard F. Deatrack, Mrs. Eugene H. Garrett, Miss Margaret J. Deatrack and Mrs. Eleanor J. Deatrack, all at home, and Mrs. Polly A. Tanger, York Springs; three grandchildren and a stepbrother, William W. Little, Gettysburg.

Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Fred F. Feiser Funeral Home, New Oxford, with John R. Korver, Hampton, and Rev. William W. Ritter, New Oxford officiating. Interment in Great Conewago Church Cemetery. Friends may call Sunday evening after 7 at the funeral home.

TOMATOES AND PEACHES NEW ON MART

The first home-grown tomatoes and peaches of the season appeared at the Farmers' Market this morning where farmers promised new potatoes and roasting ears by next Saturday.

The tomatoes sold at 45 cents a quart box and disappeared quickly while the peaches, Clings and a larger early white variety, brought 30 cents per quart box.

Black raspberries brought 45 and 50 cents a quart box while the red variety sold at 30 cents a pint and 55 cents per quart.

Sweet cherries were in good supply at 30 cents a quart and the sour Montmorencies were plentiful at 25 cents a quart. Apples were in better supply this week at 35 cents a quarter peck and 65 cents a half peck.

Green and yellow snapbeans were 20 cents a box and two for 35 cents. Squash were five, 10 and 15 cents each and cucumber prices ranged from one to five cents apiece. Red plums could be had at 30 cents a box. Red beets are 10 cents a bunch, the same price as onions.

Honey was 40 cents for a pound jar and applebutter brought 50 cents a jar. Eggs were steady at 45 and 50 cents a dozen.

WILL JUDGE PEACH DISHES ON AUGUST 17

The annual Adams County Peach Dessert contest will be held on August 17, Mrs. Eleanor Griest, chairman of the fruitgrowers wives committee, and Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, county extension home economist, announced today.

The contest will be open to unmarried Adams County girls between the ages 15 and 21. Prior year's winners, other than state winners, may enter the current year's contest.

Entry blanks are available at the present time in the county agricultural extension office at the courthouse or from Mrs. Griest.

OFFER $25 AWARD

A county committee consisting of fruitgrowers' wives and the extension home economist will conduct the county contest and the county winner will participate in the state competition. Three qualified judges will judge the product and interview the contestants.

Scoring will be on the general appearance of the peach dessert, its flavor, texture and recipe and the appearance of the contestant.

Each contestant will prepare her own choice of a peach dessert at home and submit it for judging in the county event. Each will furnish her own ingredients and display her fresh peach dessert in a simple manner. Each girl will submit three copies of her peach dessert recipe typed on a 5 by 7-inch white card.

A $25 award will be given to the first place winner. Appropriate awards will be presented to the others who place at the county level. The expenses for the county winner to the state contest will be paid.

YMCA CAMP TO OPEN MONDAY WITH 25 BOYS

Twenty-five boys Monday will start two weeks of activities at the Day Camp to be conducted at Camp Waybright, near Natural Dam, under auspices of the Adams County YMCA.

The bus to transport the boys to the camp will leave from in front of the Gettysburg High School auditorium at 9 o'clock each morning starting Monday, and parents are asked to have the children there a few minutes before that hour.

At "Camp Waybright" the program, under direction of Jerry Krum, assisted by three junior assistants, will include campcrafts of all types, archery, softball, kickball, nature study and crafts and swimming instruction.

HARRISBURG TRIP
Walter B. Lane, of the county YMCA board, said the plan this year is to use the campcrafts program to develop things such as fire places, lean-tos, a small raft, etc., which will be valuable in the future as part of the new camp's equipment.

Next Thursday the entire group will travel to the Harrisburg area YMCA camp to join the youngsters there in their activities.

During the two-week camp the

Maitland Brothers Low For Bridge Job

Maitland Brothers of Littlestown were the low bidders at $177,572 for a contract with the state Highway Department to replace a covered bridge over Conewago Creek and build roadway approaches, according to an Associated Press news dispatch from Harrisburg.

The present bridge links Conewago and M. Pleasant Twp., between Cedar Ridge Village and McSherrytown. A prestressed concrete structure will replace the old wooden span. The contract involves relocation of some portions of roadway and reconstruction of others. The total roadway involved amounts to 1.44 miles.

SKIT PROGRAM ENDS CAMP AT HAPPY VALLEY

Seventy-five Girl Scouts and staff members from the Trefoil Neighborhood, which includes Conewago Chapel, East Berlin, New Oxford, and York Springs, participated in a program of skits and group singing at closing exercises Friday afternoon of the 1962 day camp sessions at Camp Happy Valley.

During the week the camp was visited by Mrs. Paul Hummel, executive director; Mrs. Galen Jones, director of program services; Miss Judy Porter, district advisor, and Stuart Bauer, finance director.

Girl Scout Troop 1457 from Cleveland, Ohio, with their leaders, Mrs. T. A. Japinski and Mrs. R. Rindall, shared in the ceremony the "Wedding Prayer."

CAMP PERSONNEL

Serving as the director of the camp was Mrs. Arthur Phiel Jr., Gettysburg, assisted by Demaree Deardorff, senior aide, Dr. James Hammett, Fairfield, was the doctor-on-call. The staff also included Mrs. Richard Holtry, with senior aides Bonnie Snyder and Jane Weikert in arts and crafts; Mrs. William Miller, with senior aides, Candy Bollinger and Sandy Duttera, and Miss Linda Wald in music.

MISS SANDERS IS WED TODAY TO P. E. LITTLE

The wedding of Miss Linda Ann Sanders, daughter of William H. Sanders, Gettysburg R. 5, to Philip Edward Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Little, R. 5, was solemnized at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Boonerville, this morning at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Fr. Louis Forberg was celebrant at the nuptial mass and conducted the double-ring ceremony.

The altar was decorated with white gladioli, yellow pompons and ferns. The statues had bouquets of white and yellow pompons.

Mrs. Bernard Walter, the organist, played the traditional Gregorian wedding marches and the choir sang "Ave Maria," "Panis Angelicus," "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy," and "Lord Who At Cana's Wedding Feast."

ATTENDED BY SISTERS

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William J. Sanders Jr., was attired in a wedding gown of silk organza with a high scooped neckline with a fitted bodice. The full skirt was picked up on the sides with self bows and lace motifs and ended in a chapel train. Her imported silk illusion veil fell from a pearlized spray headress. She carried a bridal prayer book, topped with a white orchid and staphanotis, long white streamers with white sweetheart roses attached. The bride's only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of

Ask Bids On School Station Wagon Here

The Adams County board of school directors has asked for sealed bids on a station wagon to be used for the transportation of school children to the special education class in Gettysburg at the former High Street school building. This will be the second station wagon in use for that purpose. Bids are to be sent to the board's secretary, Hugh C. McElhenny, and addressed to the county superintendent's office on Carlisle St. The deadline for bids is 4 p.m. July 26. Copies of specifications are available at the county office.

Bids are being asked on a 1962 model, four-door, nine-passenger station wagon with six cylinder engine and manually operated gear shift.

Assets In Receivership As 3 Estes Associates Plead Guilty In Court

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Billie Sol Estes, 37, the "boy wonder" who parlayed fertilizer tanks, grain storage and cotton allotments into a multimillion-dollar empire, was declared bankrupt Friday.

Federal District Judge R. Ewing Thomson said no satisfactory plan had been submitted for continuing operation of Estes' assets under a receivership.

Estes' attorney, John Cofer of Austin, said he would appeal at once.

Earlier in the day, the Pecos, Tex., promoter, pleaded innocent to federal charges that he and three associates had defrauded finance companies out of approximately $22 million by obtaining loans on anhydrous ammonia tanks which the government says never existed.

Two Treated For Fractured Wrists

Amelio Mercado, 30, R. 3, was treated Friday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of the left wrist suffered in a fall from a cherry tree while working at a Donaldson farm.

Brian Bittle, 3½, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Bittle, Littlestown R. 1, received treatment for a fracture of the left wrist sustained in a fall off a picnic bench on July 11.

Amy L. Flood, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Flood, Seven Stars, was treated Friday for a laceration of the left knee inflicted while climbing on a chicken house roof.

Larry A. Rush, 7, York Springs R. 2, who fell from a moving tractor, was treated Friday for a deep laceration of the right knee.

52 GUARDSMEN LEAVE TODAY FOR VA. CAMP

Fifty-two members of the local National Guard unit left here by truck at 6 o'clock this morning for their annual two-week summer encampment at Camp Pickett, Va.

Included in the unit leaving today were 48 enlisted men and four officers. An advance detail of six members of the Guard left Thursday to have everything in readiness at Camp Pickett by the time of the arrival of the main party of the Howitzer Battery.

Preparatory to the trip to Pickett, the Howitzer Battery of the 104th Armored Cavalry met at the armory on W. Confederate Ave. at 8 o'clock Friday night.

LEAVE AT 6 A.M.

There Lt. Dean Bankert gave instruction on safety rules during the two-week encampment, and Captain Donald E. Doersom, the commanding officer, instructed on standard operating procedures.

Following the instruction the men loaded the trucks and made final check prior to departure of the unit.

The men stayed at the armory during the night in practice for procedures at Camp Pickett. A guard was established with Senior Officer Candidate Calvin Manahan as officer of the day and Officer Candidate Ronald E. Blocher as sergeant of the guard.

At 4 o'clock this morning the men breakfasted on bacon and eggs, toast, milk, coffee, cereal and fruit juice prepared by the mess section of the unit.

Following breakfast the men loaded their personal items on the vehicles and at 6 o'clock the convoy started for Camp Pickett.

SON IS HELD FOR ASSAULT ON HIS DAD

Albert V. Redding, 24, Hanover, was held for court Friday night on an assault and battery charge following a hearing before Justice of the Peace John Whitman, Gettysburg R. D.

The charge was brought against Redding by his father, Wilbur V. Redding, Gettysburg R. 6, local surveyor and former county superintendent of highways.

The elder Mr. Redding was the only witness to testify at the hearing Friday. He said his son struck him "at least five times" on the night of July 6. As a result of the blows the father suffered lacerations and bruises about the right side of his face and ear and a punctured eardrum. An operation was performed on the punctured eardrum, Wilbur Redding told the justice, but he added that it will be some time before it can be determined whether permanent injury to his ear has occurred.

RENEWES $500 BAIL

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman represented the elder Mr. Redding at the hearing while Attorney Donald M. Swope represented the younger Mr. Redding. At the conclusion of Wilbur Redding's testimony, Attorney Swope said his client would not testify "at this time."

BLENHHEIM HAS GAY TWISTER AT HUGE BALL

WOODSTOCK, England (AP)—Ancient Blenheim Palace, birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, jumped to the twist today. Princess Margaret led the beat at a gay coming out party for a pretty American debutante.

The honking rhythm echoed until near dawn through the 10th Duke of Marlborough's stately 303-room hall as 1,100 guests gyrated between gulps of lobster and champagne.

The glittering ball, attended by the cream of British and American society, served a double purpose.

COMING OUT PARTY

The 64-year-old Duke gave it as a coming out party for his half-American granddaughter, Serena Russell, 18, of Berwyn, Pa.

It also marked the 22nd birthday of his son, Lord Charles George William Colin Sepence-Churchill, a junior at Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tenn.

Princess Margaret, her hair an orange tinge and set in a new style, did a sprightly but not violent twist, spectators said.

SECOND TWISTER

Thus she became the second member of Britain's royal family to be spotted doing the twist in public. The Duke of Edinburgh performed the dance at a ball given this spring by Queen Juliana of the Netherlands.

Margaret and her husband, Lord Snowdon, who are weekend-ing at the nearby home of the Marquis and Marchioness of Blandford, arrived late for the party.

The American guest of honor, Miss Russell, also was born in the 340-year-old palace. She wore a close-fitting strapless gown of white cake lace, which flared from her trim hips to a full hemline.

FATHERS, SONS TO GO CAMPING ON AUGUST 18

Black Walnut District Scouts and Explorers will have an opportunity to go camping the weekend of August 18 and 19—but only if they can get their fathers to accompany them.

Merl E. Eisenhart, director of the "Father and Son Camporee" program, first of its type to be held in the district, said it will get underway Saturday, August 18, at Camp Wolf Pit, one mile east of Aspers, and conclude Sunday, August 19. Only Scouts accompanied by their fathers will be eligible to attend.

The encampment will begin with registration from 9 to 11 o'clock on the morning of August 18 but Eisenhart said fathers who cannot arrive at that hour with their sons may arrive at any time.

TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Lunch will be from 11 to 1. From 1 to 4 o'clock the fathers will be shown how to do first aid, knots, lashing, etc., and will actually tie knots, etc., themselves.

Swimming is scheduled from 4 to 6 p.m. Supper will be from 6 to 8 p.m. and a campfire will be held at 8 p.m.

Sunday morning after breakfast Protestant services will be held at the camp site while Catholic Scouts and their fathers attend Mass at Gettysburg. Games are scheduled for the morning, lunch will be from 12 to 2 p.m. and at 3 p.m. a closing ceremony with presentation of awards will be held.

Assisting Eisenhart in the conduct of the camporee will be Paul L. Hollinger, Crosby N. Hartzell, Donald Carver and Dr. Richard Greenholt.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Jerry Wald, a former screenwriter who became one of Hollywood's leading film producers, died Friday night. Wald, who was 49, produced such film classics as "Johnny Belinda" and "Humoresque."

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Virginia National Guard jet fighter plane crashed into a farm field some six miles southwest of Harrisburg Friday shortly after its pilot had ejected from the craft.

The Air Force identified the pilot as Lt. James Hall, of Richmond, Va. He parachuted to safety.

Authorities said Hall and a pilot in another F4 were enroute from Tinker Air Force Base at Oklahoma to the Olmsted Air Force Base in Middletown at the time.

The pilots are members of the 149th Tactical Fighter Squadron stationed at Byrd Field in Richmond.

Two Promoted By Eddie's Cleaners

Eddie's Cleaners and Launderers held a dinner sales meeting in the Starlight room of Dutterer's Restaurant in Littlestown on Wednesday when promotions of two employees were announced. Donald C. Arbogast was advanced to the position of sales manager and Mahlon E. Feeser was made assistant sales manager. Both are from Littlestown.

Also announced at the meeting were cash safety awards for these routemen who had perfect driving records for the last year: Harold Bowers, Roger Collins, George Dehoff, Robert Hall, Eugene Ouren, Clyde Rohrbach, Clarence Schwartz and Jay Showaker, all of Littlestown.

The speaker for the evening was Samuel Bevis of R. R. Street Company of Chicago. His subject was "Custom Care," the finishing process used by Eddie's Cleaners. The meeting was conducted by Miss Pat Grant, director of public relations and advertising of Frahm Associates of Washington, D. C.

MISS SANDERS

the groom. She presented a cascade bouquet of white carnations and roses to the Blessed Mother.

Mrs. Albert McMaster, R. 5, sister of the bride, the matron of honor, wore a pink street-length dress of dacron organza over taffeta with a square neckline, cap sleeves, and a full skirt with flower motifs on the front. Her chin-length veil fell from a flower headband. She had matching shoes and wore white bridal gloves. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bride, and carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with inserts of pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Catherine Sanders, sister of the bride, one of the bridesmaids, wore a blue street-length dress of dacron organza over taffeta with a square neckline, cap sleeves and a full skirt with flower motifs on the front. Her chin length veil fell from a flower headband. She had matching shoes and wore white bridal gloves. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bride.

OTHERS IN PARTY

Miss Frances Schrade, R. 5, cousin of the bride, the other bridesmaid, wore a yellow street length dress of dacron organza over taffeta with a square neckline, cap sleeves and a full skirt with flower motifs on the front. Her chin length veil fell from a flower headband and she wore matching shoes and white bridal gloves. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bride. Both bridesmaids carried cascade bouquets of white carnations with inserts of sweetheart roses to match their dresses.

Anthony Legore, Hanover, served as best man and the ushers were Gerald Sanders, R. 5, brother of the bride, and Michael Bauerline, R. 5, nephew of the groom.

David Shaner, McSherrystown, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer. The flower girl, Kimberly Eline, Hanover, cousin of the bride, wore a white silk organza dress made similar to the attendants' dresses. Her headpiece was a crown of white sweetheart roses and she carried a basket of assorted flowers.

RECEPTION FOR 200

Mrs. William Klunk, grandmother of the bride, wore a light blue eyelet dress with black and white accessories and a white cymbidium orchid. The groom's mother wore a black and white dress with white accessories and a white cymbidium orchid.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Bonneville Fire hall for approximately 200 guests, after which the couple left on a two-week wedding trip to Florida. For traveling the bride chose a blue dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside at Gettysburg R. 5.

The bride graduated from DeLone Catholic High School with the class of 1959 and is employed by the Department of Revenue, Harrisburg. The groom graduated from the same school with the class of 1957 and is employed by Penland Paper Converting Corporation, Hanover.

ALGIERS (AP)—Moslem and French officials and businessmen say the economy of the 10-day-old Algerian nation is nearly on the rocks and no one has any concrete plan for keeping it afloat.

HANDYMAN IS CHARGED WITH HOTEL BLAZE

LIBERTY, N.Y. (AP)—A 38-year-old handyman at a Catskill Mountain hotel has been charged with first-degree murder in connection with a fire that leveled the resort's main building, killing three men and injuring 12 other persons.

Dist. Atty. Robert Williams of Sullivan County said the handyman, Robert Gilbert Ryan of The Bronx, signed a statement admitting he set the fire early Friday.

Williams and State Police Capt. Carl Lawson declined to divulge a motive in the case.

TAKEN AT SCENE

The district attorney said Ryan was picked up at the scene of the fire at Hankins High View House near Liberty and questioned about his activities. The Negro handyman later admitted to police that he purposely set fire to a piece of tissue paper and placed it against a wall of the hotel's main building, Williams said.

The handyman had worked at the hotel for several seasons and was rehired last May, police said.

The charred bodies of two men were taken from the hotel's burned-out building. A third man died 16 hours later in a Liberty hospital. All are from the New York City area.

Some of the 12 persons injured in the blaze suffered broken bones when they leaped from second-floor windows.

The hotel, three miles from Liberty, is in the heart of the Catskill resort area and caters primarily to middle-aged or elderly summer visitors from New York City, about 80 miles to the south.

weeks activities will include a nature hunt, volleyball and table tennis, box hockey and relays and a special events day program next Friday.

XMAS IN JULY

"Christmas in July" was observed at the Fourth St. Tot Lot with the youngsters making paper decorations for Christmas trees, Santa Claus, etc., and a special Christmas program was held Friday. Next week the Fourth St. Tot Lot will feature "animal week" ending with an animal show Friday.

At Recreation Park Tot Lot this week relays, singing and circle games were held and the youngsters made paper helicopters. During a nature hike the children collected leaves, flowers and insects to begin a nature book for each individual. Next week the group will learn various folk dances and continue work on the nature books. Art work will include string pictures, ice cream spoon designs, clowns of cloth and "balloon surprises." A covered dish supper will be held at Rec Park Tot Lot Wednesday evening from 6 to 8:30 o'clock.

TO VISIT FARM

At Stevens St. Tot Lot spatter painting and water coloring were featured. Friday the group toured Fantasyland. Next week will be "animal week" and the youngsters will make ducks, yarn dolls and dress up like animals. A visit to a farm is planned.

At the College Tot Lot hiking, singing games, a cowboy and Indian day and a visit to Fantasyland were featured. Next week the program includes: Monday, dancing, hiking and making of bracelets and necklaces; Tuesday, arts and crafts; Wednesday, a scavenger hunt; Thursday, a splash party, and Friday, a pirate day.

court developments would not affect the inquiry by his Senate investigations subcommittee into Estes' dealings with the government.

The subcommittee plans to hear at least two weeks' more testimony before calling Estes to its witness stand.

Estes' affairs were placed in receivership after he testified that his liabilities exceeded his assets by $17 million.

Harry Moore, an El Paso banker who is the court-appointed receiver, was named Friday by Judge Thomason as trustee of the bankruptcy. He was given 30 days to file a trustee's report.

In testimony Friday before the McClellan subcommittee, Swan August Sandstrom, 72, Oklahoma farmer, said he knew there was "something fishy" in his cotton allotment deals with Estes.

Federal law forbids the sale of cotton allotments, but Sandstrom said he knew he was selling and that the Estes people knew they were buying his planting allotment for 8.1 acres of cotton for $418. One result, he said, was that some of his neighbors were influenced to let Estes get some of their acreage allotments, too.

Walter J. Arnote, of McAlester, Okla., former president of the Oklahoma Bar Association, testified he had warned his clients and deals of this type were "blatantly fraudulent" and had advised them not to get involved.

Sandstrom had named Glenn Blake, a land buyer, as the man who talked him into their transaction. Arnote testified he couldn't recall who had approached his clients, but "the name Blake kind of rings a bell."

DEATHS

Leo T. Connelly, 71, Harrisburg, a retired taxicab driver, died Friday at the Harrisburg Polyclinic Hospital.

He was a member of Teamsters Local 776 and Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church.

Survivors are a son, James P. Connelly of Linglestown; two sisters, Mrs. Mable Buckley, Danville, and Mrs. Harriett P. Priest, Gettysburg, and five grandchildren.

A requiem high mass will be celebrated at 9 a.m. Tuesday at Sacred Heart Church by the Rev. John J. Onofrey. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home, 1334 N. Second St., Harrisburg, from 7 to 9 p.m. Monday. The rosary will be recited at 8:15 p.m.

TEN YEARS AGO

Young GOP Organizer: An organization meeting for a Young Republican Club of Adams County held Wednesday at the call of John Thrush met at the SAE house, W. Lincoln Ave. A second meeting will be held next week preliminary to the first regular meeting of the club. The persons attending were Arthur Aikin, Chris Angiolis, Richard Guise, Jim Pitzer, William Tonsel, John Thrush and Cletus Tripp. The object of the Young Republican Clubs is "to work for better government by participation of young voters in Republican political activities" Thrush said.

One-Hour Cancer Drive: Plans for a one-hour, county-wide "Lights-On" drive to complete 1962 fund raising for the Adams County unit of the American Cancer Society were announced today by Attorney Richard A. Brown, unit president. The drive will be conducted July 16 from 8 to 9 o'clock in all parts of the county by volunteer workers in an effort to push Adams County "over the top" of its $3,000 goal for the work of the Cancer Society. The Adams County Unit already has raised approximately $1,700, Mr. Brown said.

First Edition Out: The first edition of "The Spirit of Gettysburg," a four-page "newspaper" replete with interesting facts relative to the Battle of Gettysburg and where to go and what to see here, has been issued under the sponsorship of the Plaza Restaurant and Bookmart Stationers, N. A. Melligates, who is proprietor of both concerns and president of the Chamber of Commerce, said that the miniature edition is intended as a welcome as well as a guide to tourists. It commemorates the 89th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and will be distributed free through various business places in Gettysburg.

School House Sold: Good Intent school house was sold at public auction Saturday afternoon by the Straban Township School District for $2,625 to Joseph Keller, owner of one of the adjoining farms. G. R. Thompson was the auctioneer.

Prominent Chinese Guest Of Wagners: Dr. T. Z. Koo, head of the Department of Oriental Studies at the University of Iowa, Mrs. Koo and their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Lew, and daughter, Irene, of State College, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Milton Wagner, Fairfield Road. Dr. Koo was formerly secretary of the World's Christian Student Foundation; secretary of the World's YMCA and head of the Chinese delegation to the League of Nations, narcotics control section. Mr. Wagner who, with his wife, spent more than ten years in China, where they met and were married, was associated with Dr. Koo in the Wuchang YMCA when Dr. Koo was secretary of the student section of the National Committee of the YMCA in China. Dr. Lew is associate professor of aeronautical engineering at Penn State. Mr. and Mrs. Wagner expect to go to Japan early next year as representatives of the American Friends Service Committee.

Give Swinging Bridge Away: The swinging bridge across Marsh Creek at Black Hole today became the property of the people owning the property surrounding the bridge. That was the solution finally worked out by the Highland Twp. Supervisors when they received a petition asking that they reconsider their plans to abandon the structure after more than 60 years of maintaining the bridge. Supervisors Loring Keller, Charles McCadden and Rowe Walker then asked the property holders on each side of the bridge, Clifton and Edith Woerner and Luther and Clara Byers, if they would consider taking over the

HAPPY ENDINGS

Over the years I have read many books that haven't ended very happily and, although I have felt repaid for reading their stories, still I have wished the endings might have left the light in my heart burning bright instead of having it blown out by the time.

I have read so much about the unhappy story (or play) as a thing of art. Often this is applied to the sordid story as well. And there are many who believe that you must throw in the rough talk and seamy touches of life in order to make it that much more artistic.

Well, all right. But to me, art shall always remain as that which is true and beautiful in life. If a man faces the sordid, evil, the coarse, the rough, and the base in life, and yet does not lose that fine appreciation for beauty which is the real source of all genuine happiness, then he may be said to know art in its true sense.

As for me, the story teller or playwright may go as far as he wishes in depicting the lives and experiences of his characters, but I prefer that his story or play end happily.

We live to fulfill some plan or other. It doesn't matter much whether we understand what it is all about or not — but when we read of the lives and experiences of others, we want to be entertained and instructed, as well as inspired.

Had I ever written a novel it would have ended happily! If it hadn't sold, very well and good. I have noticed that most of the plays which are sordid from start to finish have very short runs. The last time I attended the theater I saw a very delightful play. There were things in it that rather squeezed one's heart at times, but in the end everything came out all right. As every one in the audience hoped it would.

Happiness and unhappiness are pretty evenly divided, but somehow we want the happy part to come last, or to be so divided that the last act is a happy one — like one lying down to pleasant slumbers.

Just Folks

YESTERDAY
Oh, dear old yesterday, gone by!
The fisherman's delight;
The day I think of with a sigh
When bass were known to bite.
For never do I put to sea
On river, lake or bay,
But what somebody says to me,
"They caught 'em yesterday!"

Whenever after fish I go
The time is never right.
Though 'round and 'round the lake I row
The bass refuse to bite.
The slip that lies 'twixt cup and lip
Pursues my luckless way.
For when I take a fishing trip
It always is today!

Oh, happy yesterday gone by!
I would that I might know
The luck with bait and worm and fly
They tell me you bestow.
And yet should I remain alive
A thousand years away,
I don't see how I can contrive
To catch 'em yesterday.

bridge, since it was maintained mostly for their convenience. The two families agreed to accept the responsibility for it. So now Mr. Byers will be able to cross the bridge to get his mail and the Woerners will be able to cross the bridge when they take their cattle down to the stream for water. And because of the agreement to keep up the bridge hundreds of swimmers will probably be able to continue to use the structure in order to get to Black Hole. And hundreds of children will be able to get a thrill of a lifetime on the swaying, bucking cable suspended structure.

Borough Council at its July meeting authorized the Safety Committee to advertise for bids for 35 new parking meters: voted to purchase a new roller for the highway department; directed the Warner Hospital to construct a sidewalk in front of their property on S. Washington St. and obtained two new alleys. The purchase of the automatic, five-cent type meters for installation in Lincoln Square to replace the present meters installed in 1945 was recommended by Councilman John Fox, chairman of the Safety Comm. Council named two alleys it ordained south of W. Middle St. back of the Atlantic bulk plant and Howard St. "Shealer" alley and "Reaver" alley.

British Put Through First
Telstar Trans-Ocean Phone
Call To Beat French Rivals

By BERNIE GOULD

NEW YORK (AP)—The British jumped the gun and put through the first trans-Atlantic telephone call via Telstar Thursday night.

The space communications satellite thus generated an out-of-this-world rivalry between the English and the French.

France made an unscheduled start on transatlantic telecasting Wednesday night. The British called it a "clear breach of faith" and, in apparent retaliation, beat the French to the draw on international phone calls via space.

The call between scientists in Britain and the United States lasted about 10 minutes and concerned mainly technical matters.

CALLED "SUCCESS"

A spokesman for the British

Post Office, which controls broadcast in England much as the Federal Communications Commission does here, termed the experiment a success.

The French denied they broke an agreement which called for the first European television program to be received in the U.S. July 23. Citing a technicality, the French said the agreement provided that the joint European telecast would be "live," while theirs was pre-recorded.

The French program included songs by actor Yves Montand and other entertainers. It was seen in American homes, as was a "live" British telecast bounced off the satellite a few hours later.

CLAIM VIOLATION

The European Broadcasting Union, in a communique issued in Geneva, said the French telecast violated the international agreement "that no TV material of entertainment or informative character be transmitted in advance of the joint Eurovision project."

The first formal transatlantic telephone call via Telstar had been scheduled for tonight between the United States and France.

Instead, the British completed the first such call Thursday night. It was placed by scientists at the Goochill Downs tracking station in Cornwall to fellow engineers at American Telephone & Telegraph Co.'s ground station at Andover, Maine.

AT&T designed and built the 170-pound Telstar at a cost of $50 million, and paid the government nearly $4 million to launch it from Cape Canaveral Tuesday morning. It was the first privately financed space venture.

The switchboard in outer space is whirling about the globe at an altitude of 600 to 3,500 miles.

Actually, the recognition of Dennis's growth—he'll be in long pants next season—is part of long-range planning to keep the series in good health. If it succeeds, we may some day be seeing such adventures as "Dennis Goes To College," "Dennis Gets Drafted," "Dennis the Menace, Jr."

"We've been making some changes all along," explained O'Keefe.

KEARNS' DEATH
A big change was occasioned by the death of Joe Kearns, who played Mr. Wilson, the comedian, who replaced him, is smarter, more sophisticated. That gives us more chance for all kinds of comedy.

"When Joe was Mr. Wilson, he was retired. Thus the situations had to come out of his own vanity, his pig-headedness, etc. Joe is not old enough to be retired. We have made him a contributing editor to a magazine. This allows him to get into different fields of interest."

"We have been broadening the scope of the series, getting into more action, more slapstick. Next year we'll be going on location—to San Diego, Washington, D.C., and perhaps Hawaii. If we last another season, we might even go to Europe. Imagine Dennis in Paris!"

It's frightening. But such is progress in the television jungle.

MISSIONARIES RETURN
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Although there is still unrest in the Congo, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. (Southern) is sending its missionaries back to that area.

Most of the church's 171 Congo missionaries were withdrawn after violence broke out in 1960, but the church's Board of World Missions said it hoped that all of them will be back at their posts by July.

The Gettysburg Fire Department grossed $17,375.74 on its annual festival and its celebration of the 89th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg. "What the net proceeds will be we do not know yet," Chairman Donald McSherry said. "We won't know for some time until all bills are in and paid."

Aerospace Industry
Faces Strike Soon

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Negotiations between two unions and the nation's aerospace industry are at a standstill Friday.

There's a July 23 strike deadline. Representatives of some aircraft and missile firms said they met Thursday with the United Aerospace Workers and the International Association of Machinists, both AFL-CIO.

But spokesmen on both sides agreed almost nothing was being done.

Secretary of Labor Arthur Goldberg has said a strike in the aircraft and missile industry would be intolerable.

About 125,000 aerospace workers at 51 plants and missile sites across the country would be affected by a walkout.

YORK, Pa. (AP)—Jacqueline Markel, 8, died at York Hospital Friday just five hours after being struck by a car while crossing the street in front of her home in nearby Red Lion. The driver of the car swerved to avoid hitting a hole in the road.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A hurricane-hunter plane was assigned to probe an easterly wave in the Lesser Antilles Friday to see if it threatens to develop into a tropical storm.

The wave—a weather disturbance with 15-knot winds—was reported moving westward toward the Caribbean Sea, about 1,500 miles southeast of Florida Thursday.

budget is all balled up.

OPPOSING VIEWS

Democrats want to wrap the budget up in one big ball of facts. Republicans want to wrap it up in one big ball of tax.

The surplus came, said Bloom, because Democrats "probably resorted to well-disguised financial sleight-of-hand."

Budget Ball is Lawrence's specialty. He handled the pitch this way in a letter to Bloom:

"As you know, I seldom take notice of your silly political prattle. However..." And he took notice for another 350 words.

The governor made it plain he considered Bloom to be playing politics, which he implied is a sinister thing to do in an election year.

Bloom said Lawrence "owes it to the people" to explain his budget surplus.

STUDY BOOKS

Lawrence said Bloom should examine the state's books, adding: "You owe it to the people of Pennsylvania to avail yourself of this material."

BEN BELLA IS EYING SINGLE PARTY SYSTEM

By RODNEY ANGOVE

ORAN, Algeria (AP)—Deputy Premier Ahmed Ben Bella, flushed by the triumph of his return, has demanded single party rule for Algeria, backed by the army which regards him as a hero from the war for independence from France.

In his first major address since his return Ben Bella told a cheering throng Thursday:

"We must have a single, disciplined party to achieve the aims of our revolution, not several parties. We will not permit a return to the sterile game of the old party system."

MAKES IT CLEAR

Ben Bella made it clear he wants a one-party system based on the National Council of the Algerian revolution which includes many officers opposed to moderate Premier Ben Youssef ben Khedda.

His aides hinted that talks in Rabat between rival Algerian factions failed to produce agreement and that Ben Bella is in no hurry to proceed to Algiers for talks with Ben Khedda and other members of the provisional government. Instead of going on to Algiers he returned to Tiemcen, 40 miles east of the Moroccan border, Thursday night. Aides said his further plans were uncertain.

Ben Khedda favors close links with France. Ben Bella has insisted on Arab nationalism as a revolutionary theme.

MAY GROUND
DEKE SLAYTON

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maj. Donald K. (Deke) Slayton, barred by heart trouble from exploring space alone, faces possible grounding by the Air Force, too.

A spokesman said Friday the Air Force is reviewing whether the veteran test pilot should be permitted to keep flying jet planes.

No action will be taken at least until the 38-year-old Slayton returns from a fishing vacation in his native Wisconsin.

MAY HAVE PHYSICAL

It was indicated Slayton might undergo an Air Force physical examination as part of the review of his flying status.

The National Aeronautics and Space Agency took Slayton off team Wednesday because of the heart difficulty. He was to have made the orbital flight taken by Navy Lt. Cmdr. M. Scott Carpenter.

Slayton is expected to take on engineering and planning tasks with the man-in-space project, and NASA officials do not foreclose the possibility he might go along on two-man or three-man space expeditions that will follow the Project Mercury solos.

Paths in Muir Woods, near San Francisco had to be paved because the pressure of feet was wearing away tree roots.

Elderly Woman Is Shotgun Victim

MAHANOCY CITY, Pa. (AP)—

Mrs. Johanna Bridgman, 70, was reported in critical condition Friday after being shot during an argument with a boarder at her home in nearby Barnesville.

State police said Leroy Gerber, 53, told them he and Mrs. Bridgman had a disagreement and he picked up a shotgun. Police quoted him as saying he didn't know the gun was loaded.

CASSINI IS STILL MAKING WOMEN PRETTY

By JOY MILLER

Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Oleg Cassini is still preaching his old heresy: Clothes should make a woman look pretty.

For 10 years he has argued—sometimes alone, when the trend was antishape—the right of women to show curves where nature put them. Becoming designer to the chic First Lady, whose fashion philosophy tends toward the easy fit, did not shake Cassini's sense of mission.

"Any designer has only one message in his career," the tall, slim, Russian-born aristocrat said Thursday to the more than 200 fashion writers in town to view the New York Couture Group's fall collections. "And he fights for it all through his life. I want to show that a woman is a woman, and make her pretty."

SOME HIGHLIGHTS

Here are some highlights of his fall collection:

1. Skirts a little longer—"about a quarter-inch so they won't show that tiny piece of bone in the knee," he explained clinically.

2. Three-piece suits, some knit, some brocade, some with a black velvet weskit for evening wear.

3. Mexican-theme dresses with charro embroidery, not designed for Mrs. John F. Kennedy's trip but inspired by it.

4. A couple of rajah coats, which prompted him to comment on Mrs. Kennedy's visit to India and Pakistan: "You have to be proud of what she's done."

5. Colorful silk (pronounced sin) dresses for evening, styled after the costume Laotian women wear—draped skirt, bare-shouldered bodice, stole.

AIR FORCE FIRES
Missile 7,000 Miles

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—The Air Force says an Atlas D missile was fired from California almost to the Philippine Islands—more than 7,000 miles away.

The missile came down in international waters 200 miles east of Mindanao an island in the Philippine group Thursday, the Air Force said.

Described as a routine firing, the Atlas was not armed with a nuclear warhead.

In previous launches, Atlases have soared as far as 10,000 miles.

Angels' Victory Tightens American League Race As Yanks, Indians Both Lose

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American League spotlight focused today on three rings. In the main arena were the top three pennant contenders—New York's world champion Yankees, Cleveland's runner-up Indians and Los Angeles' surprising Angels—separated by only .000 points.

Arrayed on either side were Charley Lau and La Clinton, two unlikely candidates who came up with outstanding individual performances Friday night while the men in the middle were battling for first place.

The third-place Angels knocked off the league-leading Yankees for the second night in a row, moving within .008 of first place with a 5-2 victory. The Indians, beaten by Baltimore and Los Angeles, remained second, .003 behind.

Lau, the Orioles' reserve catcher, tied a major league record by slugging four doubles. Clinton, often a Boston benchwarmer, became the first American League batter since 1960 to hit for the cycle—single, double, triple and home—before his second single knocked in the winning run in a 11-0, 15-inning marathon with Kansas City.

Standout pitching shows were put on at Minnesota, where the Twins' Camilo Pascual became the top winner in the league with 13 triumphs by blanking Washington 4-0 on four hits, and at Chicago, where White Sox hurler Ray Herbert stopped Detroit 4-1 with a 3-hitter.

Leon Wagner's 26th homer—lops in the majors—and Lee Thomas' 2-run single in the third inning that drove in the decisive runs were the key blows for the Angels against Ralph Terry (11-8) and the Yankees. Ken McBride (9-3) went the distance for the victory, scattering 12 hits and running his winning streak to eight since he last lost in April.

WAGNER HOMERS
Lau doubled home the Orioles' first run in the second and started a 3-run rally in the fourth against the Indians. The homer hitters then took over, with John Powell hitting a 2-run homer in the seventh and Brooks Robinson tagging a 3-run shot in the eighth. The 13-hit attack gave Steve Barber (7-6) his first victory since being released from the army, although he needed relief help from Hal Brown over the final 1-3 innings. Jim Perry (7-7) lost it.

Clinton, hitting .556 with 30-for-54 in the last 13 games, won it for the Red Sox in the 15th with an infield single. Carl Yastrzemski, who had doubled, raced around to score with the clincher that gave the triumph to Dick Radatz (4-4) and tagged Ed Rakow (6-10) with the defeat. Norm Siebern and Ed Charles homered for the A's.

PASCUAL GOES ROUTE
Pascual (13-5) struck out 10 while going the route for the 12th time and recording his fourth shutout. Tom Cheney (2-4) started for the Senators and was touched for a run in the first on Harmon Killebrew's sacrifice fly. Cheney allowed only two hits before Marty Kutyna took over in the eighth, served a 2-run homer to Harmon Killebrew.

The Yankees built up a 5-0 lead in the first five frames but in the final inning the Cards rapped three hits, including a triple by Wally Paxon, secured two walks while a batsman was hit by a pitched ball, for the four runs. The bases were still loaded when the final out was made.

Dickie Little, Yankee star pitcher, walked three batters in the first inning and gave way to Billy Taylor who struck out the final two batsmen to stop the threat. Little rapped two triples. D. Orner two singles and Greg Weaver a double for the Yanks.

Score by innings:
Cardinals 000 040 4 3
Yankees 100 22x 5 6

Batteries: Cardinals, Coradetti, McLaughlin and W. Kane; Yankees, D. Little, B. Taylor and Greg Forsythe.

The Big League Red Sox scored in every inning to crush the Bendersville Braves 15-4 at Bigler-ville. A home run by Steve Guse with two on in the fifth averted a shutout for the losers.

Score by innings:
Braves 000 040 4 4
Red Sox 522 41x 15 14

Batteries: Braves, Ronnie Heller and S. Walner; Red Sox, Rick Weaver, D. Lady, R. Byers and T. Harman.

2 Pretty Blondes Battle For Title
SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—Three Curtis Cup team members who started in the 62nd Western Amateur Golf Tournament were spectators today as a couple of pretty blonde college girls played for the title over the frisky South Bend Country Club Course.

Intercollegiate champion Carol Sorenson, 19, of Arizona State, and Barbara Fay White, 22, of Texas Christian, gave a Southwestern flavor to the championship match.

Miss Sorenson defeated veteran Ann Casey Johnston of Mason City, Iowa, 1 up, and Miss White avenged two previous defeats by medalist Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., 4 and 2.

Drysdale Heads For 30 Victories As LA Builds Lead While Giants Lose

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

At 25, Don Drysdale is by far the youngest major leaguer involved in a race with time.

For Warren Spahn, Stan Musial and Early Wynn, all past the 40-year mark, the struggle with time is an old, old thing involving the question of how many seasons may be left in their aging frames. But for the 6-foot-6 Los Angeles Dodger right-hander the question centers around days and weeks. Are there enough weeks left in the season to become the first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean posted a 30-7 mark for St. Louis in 1934?

Maybe. Maybe not.

HAS 16 WINS
Drysdale, who has never won 20, has 16 victories after beating the New York Mets 5-4 Friday night, and is making a determined try at becoming only the second National League winner to win 30 since Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1917.

He has a good chance to make it. But it'll be close.

With 11 weeks remaining and the Dodgers 71 games from the end of the expanded NL schedule, big Don can expect about 20 more starts, at the maximum. To hit the magic mark, he must win 14. Figuring a couple of games in which he does not get the decision, and a loss or two, it'll be close.

FAIRLY'S HOMER
The swift, strong hurler spread out seven hits and got the benefit of Ron Fairly's ninth inning, tie-breaking homer in beating the Mets, pushing his record to 16-4 with 13 complete games in 21 starts.

The victory enabled the Dodgers to expand their National League lead to 1 game over second-place San Francisco, which lost to Philadelphia and Dennis Bennett 3-2.

Cal Koonce, 21-year-old Chicago right-hander, blanked Cincinnati 1-0 on a one-hitter. St. Louis beat Milwaukee and Spahn 6-0, and Pittsburgh defeated Houston 4-0.

THROWS 5-HITTER
Bennett, a 22-year-old rookie left-hander, threw a 5-hitter as the Phillies knocked San Francisco out.

The Knights of Columbus moved into a second-place tie by edging the Cardinals 1-0 in a well-played game Friday evening.

The lone run of the game came in the bottom of the fourth inning on a single by Gouker, a walk to Meckley and a double by Brady. Fee's made its best bid for a score in the fifth but was stopped by a double play. With runners on second and third base, Swope, shortstop, made a spectacular back hand catch to rob Snyder of a hit and then doubled the runner at third base.

Meckley, winning pitcher, and his opponent, Sherdel, each pitched good ball, the former allowing but one hit and the latter three.

Announce Roster For Gettysburg Little League All-Star Team

Fifteen 12-year-old youngsters comprise the 1962 Gettysburg Little League All-Star team which will represent Gettysburg in the second annual Adams County Little League tournament, starting July 25.

The Gettysburg All-Stars are the defending champions and will seek a repeat performance although all teams entered are stronger and have better balance than a year ago. Littlestown finished in the runner-up spot after dropping its first game.

The all-star teams may include 10, 11 and 12-year-olds, but by coincidence, Gettysburg's team will include all 12's.

The players and their regular season teams include: Francis Alberts, Jeffrey Hinkle, Timothy Whittinghill and Craig Swinn, Moose; Eric Maitland and Samuel Teeter, Elks; Terry Hoffman, Edward Hughes, Larry White and Stephen Monforte, Gettysburg National Bank; Robert Davies, Scott Moorehead and Rance Smith, Rotary; David Bream and Daniel Bream, Lions, and Rodney Bowers, Glenn L. Bream.

MANAGERIAL SWITCH
Just before the all-star team was announced, Gettysburg was dealt a tough blow when Elks' ace, Eric Maitland, sustained a fractured thumb earlier in the week and will be unable to participate in the tourney. His place is being taken by the first alternate, Craig Swinn of the Moose.

Due to a conflict in working weeks, Francis "Bud" Knox and Doug Knox of the league leading Moose team had to relinquish their opportunity to manage and coach the all-stars. Ed Toddes, manager of the Elks, second-place team at the time of selections, will be the all-star manager. He will be assisted by Jack Maloney, Elks' coach, and Paul Toddes, manager of the Gettysburg National Bank.

Toddes has announced that the first practice session will begin this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. All players are asked to report to the Little League diamond. All players are also asked to bring their birth certificates to the coaching staff as soon as possible.

Major League Stars
PITCHING—Cal Koonce, Cubs, allowed only one hit, Don Blasingame's single in winning his fourth straight game with a 1-0 victory over Cincinnati.

BATTING—Charley Lau, Orioles, Lu Clinton, Red Sox, Lau tied major league record by hitting four doubles in 10-3 triumph over Cleveland; Clinton became the first American League since 1960 to hit for the cycle—single, double, triple and home—before singling home winning run in 11-10, 15-inning victory over Kansas City.

Education Exhibits Are Planned For Hershey Event

FRANK ZETTLE
County Agent

Educational exhibits from at least seven land-grant universities in as many states and one from the United States Forest Service that will be making its premiere appearance has been entered for the first National Grassland Field Days and Conference, August 15-17 on the Milton Hershey Farms, 15 miles east of Harrisburg.

Frank S. Zettle

The land-grant school entries, all of them dealing with grassland farming, will come from the Pennsylvania State University, University of Minnesota, University of Illinois, Purdue University, University of Maryland, University of Delaware, and Rutgers University. Each exhibit will be accompanied by at least two staff members from the respective school. Mounted at the top of each exhibit will be its state flag. All of the educational exhibits will be housed in the Starlight ballroom, part of the famed Hershey amusement enterprises and only a short distance from the main field operation where modern grassland machines of all descriptions, including a portable hay pelleting machine, will demonstrate newest forage harvesting techniques.

NEED PLENTY OF WATER

Did you know dairy cows need more water per pound of body weight than any other farm animal? One reason for this is that milk contains about 87 per cent water. So, now that hot weather is with us, we need to be doubly sure old Bossy gets plenty of fresh, clean water whenever she wants it... or milk production will drop. The cow also needs water to help maintain her normal body temperature. A cow may drink as much as three pounds of water a day... or even more on an extremely hot day. She just cannot drink enough to supply her needs if you allow her to drink only once or twice a day. When a cow doesn't get enough water, one of her first reactions is to decrease her milk production. That's why it's so important to be sure dairy cows get all the water they want, when they want it. The ideal water supply is clean, free from contamination, and in a place the cows can get at easily. Plenty of shade in the pasture is important too. By helping your cow keep cool with plenty of water and shade, you can avoid the drop in milk production that is so common in July, August and September.

CLUB ENTRIES INVITED

August 1 is the deadline for entries in the Pennsylvania 5-Acre Corn Club sponsored by the Pennsylvania State University Agricultural Extension Service and the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association. Any farm operator or owner 21 years of age by August 1 or older is eligible to enter one field corn hybrid per farm. There must be at least five acres of the hybrid entered with an average of at least 14,000 plants per acre.

In 1961 three Pennsylvania farmers produced 200 bushels or more of dry shelled corn per acre in the contest. This year farmers making 200 bushels or more will be awarded gold ribbons, while those making 175 bushels or better will be awarded purple ribbons. Check with your extension office for further details and entry forms.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS—Lt. Col. Ted Severn appeared on TV on July 2 when he accompanied his wife and two other soloists on the piano when they sang selections which he had composed. Mrs. Severn is the former Beverly Starry, daughter of Bill Starry, of York Springs, and a former resident of York Springs. The Severns reside at Springfield, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Wonders spent the 4th of July weekend with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Conington, and family at Waide Lake, Mich.

Mrs. Parvin Bowers spent two weeks with her son, Maurice Bowers, and family at Millington, N. J. He accompanied her home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gabbard and daughters, Patricia and Jean,

Adams County's four delegates among 75 youths from the state attending this week a leadership school at National 4-H headquarters in Washington are shown as they departed on the trip. During the week the 4-H members were engaged in daily workshops on citizenship led by prominent national officials and in visits to various shrines in the Washington area. The four are, left to right, Dale Bair, Littlestown R. 2; Carol Rex, Bglerville; Sally Loraine Brown, Littlestown R. 1, and Robert Spangler, Gettysburg R. 4.

Otis Livingston, Abbottstown R. 1, and Rodman C. Thompson, East Berlin R. 1, are shown with the prizes they were awarded as the winners in the dairy judging contest held as part of the annual meeting of local members of the Southeastern Pennsylvania Artificial Breeding Cooperative at Pines Church picnic grove, near New Chester.

U.S. Student Is Jailed In E. Berlin

BERLIN (AP) — A Communist court in East Berlin today sentenced Robert Mann, a 19-year-old student from Sepulveda, Calif., to 21 months in prison on charges of trying to help a refugee escape to the West.

The judge said the time Mann had been held in prison would be counted against the sentence. He was arrested in East Berlin last Jan. 22.

In similar cases, young Americans have been released before the actual expiration of the sentence.

left Friday morning for their home in Connerville, Ind., after spending the past week at the home of Mrs. Gabbard's sister, Mrs. Elmer Coulson, and son, Bill. They will return via Cincinnati, O., where another daughter, Barbara, a student nurse at Christ's Hospital, will join them for the remainder of the trip home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers and two children, of Lansing, Mich., visited the former's brother, Rev. Amos D. Meyers, and family.

Donovan Meyers is spending the weekend with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. Amos D. Meyers. He is a counselor at Sertoma Camp at Littlestown, Pa.

8 JUDGES TO CONFAB

Eight Adams County youngsters will sit in on a meeting to make Berkshire swine produce "bigger pork chops and less fat."

Associate County Agent Duane Duncan said he plans to take the four members of the county 4-H swine judging team and the four members of the livestock judging team to Harrisburg July 19 to 21 to attend the national Berkshire type conference to be held there under sponsorship of the National Berkshire Swine Breeders Association. The members of the teams are still to be selected.

The session is being held to "standardize the kind of Berkshires needed for today's need." Duncan noted that the Berkshire breed held a similar conference a few years back to set a longer snout as a standard of the breed for more efficient use by the pigs of self-feeders and within five years, by breeding to the desired type most Berkshires were of the type with longer snout.

The standards to be set at the conference for leaner meat and bigger pork chops will lead to breeding animals that will within about a decade produce a Berkshire providing the new qualities desired, Duncan estimated.

FEDERAL AID OKAYED FOR 22 PA. COUNTIES

WASHINGTON (AP) — Federal aid has been authorized for 22 Pennsylvania counties already hard hit by drought a month before the dry weather usually arrives.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman extended federal drought program benefits to the following counties Friday:

Armstrong, Bradford, Cambria, Carbon, Centre, Dauphin, Fayette, Fulton, Greene, Lackawanna, Monroe, Montour, Northumberland, Snyder, Somerset, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Tioga, Washington, Wayne, Westmoreland and Wyoming.

Farmers in the counties will be permitted to graze and cut hay off cropland retired under the soil bank program as well as land diverted from feed grain and wheat production under stabilization programs.

Normally farmers are denied use of such land. The privileges extend through Aug. 31.

Freeman said conditions in other counties are being studied.

Walter A. Lyon, director of sanitary engineering for the State Health Department, reported that a substantial amount of acid is forming in the north branch of the Susquehanna River because of low flow and excess main drainage.

SHORT ON RAIN

Lyon said the acid could cause a major fish kill if it moves down stream too quickly.

State Agriculture Secretary William Henning said Friday that the state disaster committee is expected to be called into session soon because other counties also are starting to seek classification as emergency disaster areas.

Henning said that farmers suffering from the dry spell should contact their local office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The state has seen dry weather for more than nine weeks. Only small amounts of rain — hardly enough to dampen the parched soil — has fallen since May.

The dry weather usually arrives in August and in the fall. This leaves little for farmers to look forward to.

State weather experts report little hope of immediate relief.

County Officials Select Officers

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Howard F. Reed Jr. of Delaware County is the new president of the Pennsylvania Prothonotaries and Clerks of Court Association which winds up its three-day convention here today.

Reed was elected Friday by some 153 delegates, along with the following officers: First Vice President Richard C. Davis, Lawrence County; Second Vice President Melvin F. Raver, McKean County; Secretary William J. Dunn, Delaware County; and Treasurer Edward J. McGovern, Northampton County.

Elected directors were Joseph Brunner, Elk County; Emma S. Steele, Huntingdon County; John J. Brady, Fayette County; Charles E. Mahaffie, Lycoming County; and N. Henry Fenner, Monroe County.

CONNECTICUT CONVENTION TO NOMINATE

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — The Democratic state convention picks its candidate for the U.S. Senate today after one of its rowdiest starts in years.

The question was not whether Abraham Ribicoff would win the nomination over Rep. Frank Kowalski, but whether Kowalski could get 20 per cent of the delegate vote and thus force a primary.

It was the Senate race between Ribicoff, the former welfare secretary who resigned Thursday, and the congressman-at-large that caused the outbreak at the opening session Friday night.

BEHIND SCHEDULE

Supporters of Kowalski, demonstrating against seating arrangements, gathered in delegates' seats down front before the convention and delayed the start of proceedings.

They booed John Bailey, the state and national party chairman, time and again as he tried to quiet them. Eventually he threatened to call police.

A Kowalski leader, Al Gentile, interceded and spoke to the group as the demonstration continued. Eventually the demonstrators moved to the galleries and the convention moved along, 40 minutes behind schedule.

Some catcalls and hoots still came from the galleries and the floor as Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana started the keynote address.

especially hard hit, recording less than half of the normal rainfall, while in other areas rainfall is 50 to 75 per cent of normal.

AFB PRESIDENT WARNS ABOUT APPLE ORDERS

COLUMBUS, O. — Charles B. Shuman, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, warned apple industry leaders against the "perils and fallacies of marketing orders" at the National Apple Institute meeting here recently.

"If your objective is to liquidate the apple industry, then grab onto a marketing order, federal or state," he told the gathering and added that the way to get a better price is to earn a better price. He urged the growers to organize into strong bargaining groups.

ELECT OFFICERS

William H. Darrow Jr., Putney, Vt., was elected NAI president, replacing Larry Seaman, Clarklake, Mich. William M. Lott, Gardners, was installed as vice president.

Organizing the industry was a much discussed subject at the 27th annual meeting of the trustees of the institute. A marketing division was created—a professional association of the grower's sales people.

IMPROVE GRADING

S. R. Smith, administrator, Agriculture Marketing Service, USDA, urged the growers "to strive for more unity in your approach to marketing." Mr. Smith called for the nation-wide use of one set of good, up-to-date national grade standards to help market the crop in this country as well as improve the prospects for increasing export markets.

"K" PLANS VACATION

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Khrushchev says he is planning to make his first visit to the arctic cities of Murmansk and Archangels Sunday.

In a brief Kremlin meeting Friday with Italian Ambassador Carlo Alberto Straneo, Khrushchev also said he plans to take a vacation at the end of July or beginning of August.

C. C. PRESIDENT TALKS ABOUT JFK, BUSINESS

By LARRY OSIUS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A top spokesman for the business community says he wonders if the Kennedy administration really understands what makes American business tick.

But the spokesman, President H. Ladd Plumley of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, also told newsmen that President Kennedy appears to be trying to improve relations between the White House and the businessmen.

Plumley conferred with the President Friday then had lunch with newsmen. He told them:

UNCERTAINTY WORST

"I am not sure that the administration fully recognizes that this free enterprise system operates . . . on the decisions which are being made daily by thousands of individuals" rather than by government steering.

What bothers businessmen, Plumley said, is uncertainty. They want conditions "predictable and plottable so that they can plan their own moves."

He said businessmen are asking: If the economy is being steered by the government today, in what direction will it be guided tomorrow?

CITES YALE TALK

As an example, he cited Kennedy's commencement address at Yale University last month in which the President appeared to be seeking a truce with the business community after the uproar that followed his strong opposition to a steel price increase.

Plumley said the President remarked that deficit financing by the government could not be tolerated indefinitely, but also said that deficits could serve as an economic stimulant.

"It was left to the reader to decide what the position of the President was under circumstances of the present," Plumley commented.

However, Plumley also said

28 SHELLS

TAIPEI FORMOSA (AP)—The Chinese Communists fired 28 shells at the Quemoy Islands in a 43-minute bombardment Friday night, the Chinese Nationalist defense ministry in Taipei reported today.

That Kennedy "seems to be taking repeated steps to encourage a dialogue and understanding between business and the President."

Media Drill Team Wins At VFW Meet

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Approximately 9,500 persons turned out Friday night to watch the state-wide drum and bugle corps competition of the 43rd annual state convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Winners were:

Color guard: First Liberty Bell Post 1906 Philadelphia; second, Gladiators 6700, Philadelphia.

Senior corps: First, Archer Apple, 979 Upper Darby; second, Buccaneers 179, Reading.

Ike Will Make Two Speeches In State

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower has agreed to make two election campaign speeches this September in Pennsylvania, probably in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh.

The Republican National Committee said today that Eisenhower will also speak on behalf of Congressional and gubernatorial candidates in six other states across the nation.

Eisenhower agreed to the tentative schedule at a meeting Friday with Republican National Chairman William E. Miller at Eisenhower's farm in Gettysburg, Pa.

The schedule calls for appearances in Maryland, Indiana, San Francisco, Boston and in states still to be designed in the southern and Rocky Mountain areas.

Mainz, Germany, was so prosperous and influential in the Middle Ages that it is still known as "Golden Mainz."

Vic Damone Stars And Hosts "The Lively Ones"

If you're a "Hazel" fan or not, its summer replacement, "The Lively Ones" starring Vic Damone as host, promises some pleasant diversion for the next eight weeks.

Beginning this Thursday, "The Lively Ones" will present contemporary jazz, comedy, dancing and singing. This week's guest stars will include Peggy Lee and Woody Herman in addition to a cast of regulars.

According to producer Barry Shear, "It is not a variety show."

OFF-BEAT APPROACH

Shear, who also will direct the program, says, "When the young people of today grow up and tire of rock 'n' roll, they turn to other entertainments, some of which are very sophisticated. We'll take our viewers out on location to the places where the young set of today, 'the lively set,' goes. Our ing in the background, the new baseball stadium in Chavez Ravine, and Mulholland Drive in the Hollywood Hills. Some of the locations will be actual, others will be recreated in the NBC Burbank studios.

ONE OF TOP STARS

Vic Damone, possessed of a dynamic baritone voice, today is, in every sense of the word, one of the top stars in show business. Many of his supper-club bookings are made two years ahead, and his recording career is booming like never before.

But Damone, like so many show business personalities, had his ups and downs before reaching his goal in the entertainment world.

In 1949 Vic was an overnight sensation when he made his Hollywood debut at the Mocambo on the Sunset Strip. The Hollywood ly, the pictures were nothing to shout about, but they did well at the box office. So did Damone. He continued on the night club circuit, boosted to even greater prominence by his million-selling single, "You're Breaking My Heart."

But something happened. Vic's rocket to the top slowed down. There were no more movies, no more hit records, few top club offers. What happened?

LEARNS HARD WAY

"I was to blame for everything," Vic says now. "I used to get all tied up when I went out on stage to sing. Actually, I didn't like what I had become. But I've since learned — the hard way — that you've got to have respect for yourself and for what you're doing. I didn't then. I do now."

Maturity is also a vital factor, Damone believes. "When you're off-beat approach won't stop there, either. Vic Damone, who will host the program, will seldom introduce a guest in the regular way. Our introductions and transitions between performers will be done with audio-visual devices.

Shirley Yelen, Vic Damone and Joan Staley will be seen as regulars on "The Lively Ones" summer replacement for "Hazel."

"We'll present some entertainers who are nationally known and also some who are best known to a special group of aficionados. We're looking for a special quality of entertainment, not just for famous names.

"Locations for some of the original spots will include such West Coast spots as the UCLA campus, Malibu Beach, Hollywood and Vine with the Capitol Record Build trade papers and downtown dailies carried ecstatic reviews of Vic Damone's performance. "A great new star" said one: "The young singer drew waves of applause from Hollywood's usually blasé first-nighters" said another.

VARIED CAREER

Abe Lastfogal, head of the giant William Morris talent agency came to Damone's dressing room after the show and said, "Lad, you're going places."

On the strength of his success at the Mocambo, MGM signed Vic to a movie contract and he made four films, "Rich, Young and Pretty," "Athena," "Hit the Deck," and "Kismet." Artistic-young, it's pretty easy to let all those superlatives go to your head. And when that happens — you're in trouble."

Eleven years after his Mocambo debut, Damone came back to the same spot — then known as the Cloister — and since that April night in 1960, he has been making come true all the glorious things that were predicted for him in 1949.

In September, 1961, he signed an exclusive contract with Capitol and recorded his first LP two days later. After its release in January, 1962, the album, "LINGER A WHILE," became an overnight best-seller. Sales of the album in the first month were four times greater than any of his albums in the same period.

Damone gives credit for the resurgence in his career to a new approach to everything. The new approach can be summed up in four words: "I take it easy. I'm not trying to be like Perry Como or anything. I just want to be myself."

ABC-TV 8-8:30 p.m., EDT.

"Focus on America" is a series of 19 award-winning documentary programs produced by ABC-TV affiliates, and presented in prime time during the past season.

"Heart Attack" is a film study of Chicago's Michael Reese Hospital's research on heart disease.

The addition of color telecasting by the five ABC owned television stations this fall "will bring additional excitement and diversity" to the ABC-TV 1962-63 program schedule, Alfred R. Schneider, vice president, said recently.

An actor who essays the role of a senator should have the proper academic background and Producer Hal Stanley couldn't have made a better choice than Fess Parker for the title role in "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington" which debuts this fall on ABC-TV. Fess studied law and American history and was graduated from the University of Texas with a B. A. degree. He also attended graduate school at the University of Southern California.

Most pretty girls head for Hollywood to try for a movie career. Louise O'Brien, vocalist, on Mitch Miller's "Sing Along" programs, went there but paid no attention to the film factories. Instead she concentrated on getting into radio and television. That her choice was a wise one was evidenced by the fact that she was booked by the best including Art Linkletter, Bob Crosby and Red Skelton.

Irene Ryan, who'll be Granny in "Beverly Hillbillies" on CBS-TV next season, is remembered as the Irene of Tim and Irene, a hit team in the golden years of radio.

Bill Hanna and Joe Barbera, producers of "The Flintstones," have this to say about their work:

"If there is an underlying philosophy about our cartoons, it is to project warmth and good feeling. We spoof lots of things — Hollywood, cars, television, even our own animated commercials — but we don't see anything funny in violence and sin. Even our villains are nice guys.

"We've never tried to educate children," said Hanna. "We've never tried to preach to them, just entertain. . . . In the area of comedy today's child has a taste as sharp as his parents."

Michael Ansara, who is cast in his second consecutive starring spot as an Indian in the role of an Apache U. S. marshal in "The Law of the Plainsman," is not concerned with the possibility of being typed.

"I have no Indian blood," explains the 6'3", 203-pound actor. "I'm Lebanese. I guess it's my size and dark complexion that makes me suitable for the Indian role."

"Play music for every age and group." That's advice from Sing Along's Mitch Miller to the nation's radio stations.

"I'm not asking radio stations to snuff out the musical life of the youngsters. But I am asking them to put new life in radio. I'm asking stations to take radio away from the 'Top Ten' or 'Top 40' list and give it back to all the people. I'm asking them to give up lazy programming and to play music for every age group and every taste."

Comic Buster Keaton, Joe E. Brown and Edgar Buchanan head the guest star cast in an unusual "Route 66" episode filmed recently on location at Calabasas and Lake Sherwood in Southern Calif. for fall presentation on the CBS Television Network.

TV Tidbits

When "Beverly Hillsbillies," new comedy series starring Buddy Ebsen on CBS-TV, makes its debut this fall viewers will come across a familiar personality. She is Bea Benaderet, currently heard as the voice of Betty Rubble in "The Flintstones."

Doing comedy is an old story to Bea whose finesse in handling oddball roles and laugh lines has won her jobs with practically every big name in the business.

In the old radio days Jack Benny used Bea as Gertrude Gearshift, a mixed-up Brooklyn telephone operator. She also worked regularly in such vehicles as "My Friend Irma," "The Great Gildersleeve," "Fibber McGee and Molly," and "The Adventures Of Ozzie and Harriet."

Perhaps her biggest role — one she hopes to duplicate in "Beverly Hillsbillies" — was as Blanche Morton, next-door neighbor of George and Gracie on the Burns and Allen shows. She held that part for eight solid years.

Lawrence Welk, who this month launched his 8th season on TV, says, "We've developed a new sound — and discovered a new audience. The sound we've featured in 'Calcutta' and 'Moon River' — harpsichord, strings, voices — is one our regular viewers seem to like. And we're getting letters from young people who've 'discovered' our show as a result of our records. This doesn't mean, of course, that we are abandoning 'Champagne Music.' We'll use this new sound style for variety. It's gratifying to me that we appeal to the young people without having to resort to rock and roll."

A new career is in the offing for Mary Lou Ryhal, one of Mitch Miller's pretty dancers. If all began when Mary Lou started clowning on the set, revealing a talent for comedy that convulsed the cast. As a result, Mitch plans to feature her in comedy spots on forthcoming shows.

"Looking at her, you wouldn't believe it," says Mitch. "She looks like a Dresden doll and I had no idea that she was such a great mimic until she pulled the weather girl routine one day."

Mary Lou found a blonde fright wig in the wardrobe department, wore it on the set and gave her impression of Marilyn Monroe doing a weather forecast. It was such a hit that Mitch insisted she do the sketch on "Sing Along." The fan mail inquiring about her following that show convinced Mitch that he had a new comedienne in the series.

Jim Backus, host of "Talent Scouts," will be the voice of the title character in "Mr. Magoo's Christmas Carol" which NBC plans for a December 18 telecast.

Actor Ernest Borgnine spent 10 years in the U. S. Navy and retired with a Chief Gunner's Mate rating. Now, through the magic of television, Borgnine is being jumped in rank. He will star come fall in a lusty sea and war comedy, "McHale's Men" and the script calls for him to be a lieutenant commander, skipper of a PT boat whose exploits not only astound but confuse the entire Navy command.

"McHale's Men" will be an October entry on ABC-TV and will be seen on Thursday nights.

For the second successive year, Carol Burnett, featured regular on "The Garry Moore Show," won the award as favorite female performer in the third annual TV Guide poll of its readers.
